OPERATIONS COORDINATING BOARD
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

11 June 1954

Dear Mr. Dulles:

At the request of the Inter-Agency Working Panel on the 169 Project,
I am writing to express their deep appreciation and my own for the friendly and able assistance given me by Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberation while I was in Munich recently on a fact-gathering mission for the Project.

The staffs of both operations were most helpful and cooperative.
RFE especially opened its doors and records to me, and in the space of a day and a half gave me the kind of insight into their problems which would take years to acquire from a distance.

I have already said my personal thanks to these staffs, but it is somewhat more difficult to transmit official gratitude through the channels available. I hope you will let the appropriate individuals know of our appreciation.

Sincerely yours,

/s/ Wilbur Schramm
